Your only choice is whether you define your philosophy by a conscious, _____(8)_____, disciplined process of thought and _____(9)_____ logical deliberation — or let your subconscious _____(10)_____ junk heap of unwarranted conclusions, false generalizations, undefined contradictions, undigested slogans, unidentified wishes, doubts and fears, thrown together by chance, but _____(11)_____ by your subconscious into a kind of mongrel philosophy and _____(12)_____ into a solid weight: self-doubt, like a ball and chain in the place where your mind's wings should have grown. Your time is limited, so don't waste it living someone else's life. Don't be trapped by the _____(13)_____ — which is living with the results of other people's thinking. Don't let the noise of others' opinions drown out your own inner voice. And most important, have the courage to follow your heart and _____(14)_____. All our activities are _____(15)_____ by time, by our death. We fill up our time with distractions, never asking whether they are important, whether we really find them of value. And so we come to live an inauthentic life.
