

“Candidates affected with COVID/Election Duty on the exam dates during the exam time and could not take the exam (JAIIB/DBF/SOB Feb-Mar 2022 Examination)”

INDIAN INSTITUTE OF BANKING & FINANCE

Notice

JAIIB/DB&F/SOB examinations were held on 26th, 27th Feb and 6th Mar 2022. Since these exams were conducted under COVID environment, such candidates who were affected with COVID-19 or having symptoms of COVID infections could not attend the exam due to social distancing norms/COVID protocols. Also due to Elections in some STATES, bankers, who were deputed for election duty on the exam date/s, could not take the exam/s.

The Institute is in process of collecting information from the candidates who were affected with COVID-19 or having symptoms of COVID infections or deputed for Election Duty and could not take the exam due to social distancing norms/COVID protocols/election duty on day of exam.

- a) If you were infected with COVID during the exam time or deputed for election duty and hence could not take the exam, then you can register your request on IIBF’s website or by clicking on below link and uploading the relevant COVID medical certificate/letter of deputation to election duty, duly attested by your Branch/Bank Manager with Bank seal/stamp affixed on it. DB&F Candidates should upload the relevant COVID medical certificate duly attested by Gazetted officer.

Below link will be active from 8th Mar 2022 to 14th Mar, 2022.

Link: <https://iibf.esdsconnect.com/Covid>

Note:

- Candidate infected with COVID/Deputed for Election Duty need to register their request and upload the documents mentioned above using the above link Only. (Kindly note email request will not be entertained).
- Candidate who have already sent email to IIBF regarding their COVID infection or deputation for Election Duty on day of exam, also need to register their request and upload the relevant documents duly attested as mentioned above, using the above link Only.
- No communication will be entertained from the applicant not complying with the above requirements.

For queries related to registration, email to covidreg2022@iibf.org.in

Mumbai
8th March, 2022

Joint Director – Examinations